

BERKELEY LAB

Bringing Science Solutions to the World

Berkeley Lab Training

EHS 0631 Handling Treated Wood Waste

Course Syllabus

Subject Category: Waste Services

Course Prerequisite: None

Course Length: 1 hour

Course Mode: Small group training

Medical Approval: None

Refresher: Every 2 years

Course Purpose: To collect, manage, store and dispose of treated wood waste compliantly, in addition to meeting all reporting requirements.

Learning Objectives:

After completing this training, participants will be able to

- Procedures for identifying and segregating Treated Wood Waste (TWW)
- Handling Requirements
- Personal Protective Equipment Requirements
- Labeling Requirements
- Storage Requirements
- Disposal Requirements
- Notification Requirements
- Recordkeeping Requirements

Training Requirements: An employer managing TWW shall provide training for all employees handling TWW and all employees that may reasonably be expected to contact TWW (22 CCR 67386.12).

Instructor: Waste Services Team

Course Instructional Materials: In-person/zoom training

Practical or performance Assessment / Exam: No

Retraining/Recertification: Yes. Every two years

Course Evaluation: Feedback form used to evaluate training